Dear Ms. Dortch:

On behalf of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("JPMB"), and as discussed with the staff of the FCC's Media Bureau, we hereby withdraw the Request for Confidential Treatment ("Request") that was filed for JPMB in this proceeding on April 11, 2011. In addition, we are submitting for the public record an unredacted copy of the letter that was originally submitted with the Request, which omits the "Confidential" legend that was included on the initial submission.

Should there be any questions concerning this matter, please contact the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/Eve Klindera Reed

Re: BALCDT-20100428ACD, *et al.
MB Docket No. 10-104

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On behalf of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("JPMB"), which is a party to the above-referenced applications (the "Tribune Applications"), we hereby submit this letter in order to provide the Commission with additional information regarding certain media interests held JPMB and its affiliate J.P. Morgan Securities LLC ("JPMSL," which together with JPMB will be referred to as "JPM"). Specifically, JPM holds an interest in MediaNews Group, Inc. ("MNG"), which publishes a number of daily newspapers, including some in markets in which subsidiaries of Tribune publish daily newspapers and/or operate broadcast stations. See Attachment A. It was recently discovered that JPM held greater than 5% of the issued and outstanding Class B shares of MNG. To avoid any doubt, JPM has taken steps to convert a sufficient number of its MNG Class B shares into Class C shares so that, with an expected effective date of today, it will hold less than 5% of the Class B shares. The MNG Class C shares have voting rights only with respect to certain non-ordinary course corporate matters, as set forth in the MNG Certificate of Incorporation. Therefore, the conversion will obviate any questions that might exist concerning JPM's interest in MNG.

Should you have any questions concerning this matter, please feel free to contact me.

Respectfully submitted,

/S/Eve Klindera Reed
